

Sky Sunday

Introduction

Sky refers to the all the domains of creation above and around Earth. Sky especially refers to the domains close to Earth—the wind, the clouds, the air—the atmosphere.

It is important to note that the term translated ‘heavens’ in the Old Testament normally means sky, not the abode of God far above. It is the sky in Psalm 19 that proclaims God’s glory, God’s visible presence on Earth.

Setting

It is appropriate to create a sense of sky in the sanctuary with various symbols of domains around Earth—stars, galaxies, clouds. Images of sunrise, moonlight, and storms can be projected onto screens. The special focus below suggests that we string “prayer flags” or streamers across the sky above the worshippers.

Special Focus

A special focus for this service is the use of prayer flags in all the colours of the rainbow. In a number of cultures, flags with prayers written on them are waved or suspended on cords in the air for the wind to carry the prayers to God. The Spirit in the wind aids us as we direct our prayers to the skies. Each person may wish to write his/her own prayer on a standard prayer flag that is suspended on cords above the altar or above the heads of the worshippers. Children may also bring flags, wave them in the procession, and place them in sand boxes around the altar. These prayers may reflect our concern for creation: “Help us heal creation.” “Help us keep the trees.” “Help us save the birds.”

Themes

In our call to worship, we invite all the domains of the sky to worship with us. In our confession, we recall how we have polluted the atmosphere. In the readings, we become aware that the skies not only announce the presence of God in Earth, but also that the skies mourn/grow dark in empathy when creation below is wounded. More specifically, the sky grows dark with mourning when Christ hangs on the cross. The skies are in tune with the presence of God revealed on Earth, whether in majesty or in misery.

Optional Liturgies

Another sky liturgy, which draws on the traditions of Native Americans, is entitled Song of Sky and appears in Seven Songs of Creation, published by Pilgrim Press (2004).

Songs

A special song/hymn written for Sky Sunday is located in Habel Hymns Volume One.
The melody is the well-known hymn Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken.
The words follow.

SONG OF SKY

1. Lord of suns and star exploding
Galaxies and swirling skies,
Where you chose to show your glory
Took the heavens by surprise.
Lord of solar winds and wisdom,
Super stars that blow our mind,
Choosing such a fragile planet
Hardly seems a grand design.
2. On this piece of stardust swirling,
On this spinning spot in space,
Life itself was born like music,
When you showed your hidden face.
What an honour to be chosen,
Silent planet blue and green,
Filled with glory, grace and gardens,
Where the breath of God is seen.
3. What is even more amazing
We have poisoned Earth like fools.
Help us change our way of living,
Love the Earth and love her rules.
Help us stem the tide of traders
Leaving Earth an empty store;
Join us now Creator Spirit,
Come renew your Earth once more.

Third Sunday in the Season of Creation United States Version 1

Sky Sunday

We worship with the skies above

“The sky proclaims the glory of God, and the firmament announces the work of God’s hands.”

Psalm 19:1

SKY SUNDAY

Welcome!

We worship this Sunday with the skies. We celebrate with the clouds, the winds, the dusk, and the dawn. We listen to the sounds of sky proclaiming God's presence. We stand in awe before the vast reaches above us, and we thank God for the fragile stardust we call Earth.

Gathering

Leader In the name of God, who colors the sky,
the name of Christ, who died under dark skies,
and the name of the Spirit, the wind in the sky. Amen.

People Holy! Holy! Holy!
Sky is filled with God's presence.

L Christ, we come to into your presence, today,
to worship in this sanctuary called Earth,

P Holy! Holy! Holy!
Earth is filled with your presence.

Flag Procession and Song

We join in song with the children as they enter the church waving prayer flags on which they and members of the congregation have written prayers for the healing of our planet. In many cultures, prayers are written on flags. The flags blowing in the wind continually send the prayers through the skies to God. The flags are used to adorn the church, the altar, the sanctuary, and the building outside. We join with the children as they wave the flags and sing the following song in front of the sanctuary.

*What a friend we have in Jesus
All our sins and griefs to bear.
What a privilege to carry Ev'ry thing to God in prayer.
As we wave these flags before us,
Waving them for God to hear,
May the wind take them to Jesus,
In a special wave of prayer.*

Call to Worship

L1 We invite the skies to worship with us:

P the subtle orange skies at dawn and the bold red skies at sunset.

L2 We join the heavens in praising God:

P proclaiming God's glory across the globe and hailing God's name with the evening stars.

L3 We join with the atmosphere in worship:

P the air, the moisture, the oxygen,
the wind, and all the expressions of God's Spirit.

L1 We call the clouds to celebrate with storms:

P to carry the life-giving drops of rain that give hope and healing to Earth.

L2 We invite the winds to join our petitions:

P to carry our prayers to God above and breathe our hopes to Christ.

L3 We celebrate the song of the skies!

P Sing! Skies! Sing!

L1 We invite you to name sky creatures to join us in worship;

We name, silently or aloud, other creatures or parts of the sky or atmosphere and invite them to join us in praising our Creator.

L We celebrate the song of the skies!

P Sing! Skies! Sing!

Remembering

We hold the prayer flag received at the door and use it to stir our memories and connect with creation.

L Take the prayer flag you received at the door and move it quietly in front of you. Share with the person next to you a special memory of the sky or a prayer you sent into the heavens.

L We remember the skies where God chose to reveal God's presence.
We remember the saints of old who cried to the heavens in pain and hope.

P We remember as a child, beside our bed, praying to God in heaven above.
We remember the blue skies,
the wild winds,
and the life-giving rain falling from the sky onto the dry ground.

L We remember and rejoice.

P Thank you, God, for skies to remember, and for the winds of life from heaven.

Confession

L As we hold this prayer flag aloft, we remember and confess that we have turned the surrounding sky into a new domain to be conquered rather than a presence to protect us.

P We are sorry.
We have polluted the atmosphere with waste,
We have depleted the ozone layer that protects us,
We have filled our skies with toxins.
We are sorry. We are sorry.

L We are sorry.

P We are sorry. We are sorry.

Absolution

L Christ hears your confession from the clouds and forgives your sins against the sky.

P Christ, teach us to love Earth as our home and the skies as worlds for wonder.

L. I speak for Christ:
I invite you to come home to Earth and to love the skies.

P Shalom! Shalom!
We are coming home!

Christ Have Mercy

- L As we come home to Earth.
- P Christ, have mercy.
- L As we seek to love our home.
- P Christ, have mercy.
- L As we seek to care for our kin.
- P Christ, have mercy.

Glory to God

- L Glory to God in the highest!
- P And on Earth peace with our kin in creation!

Prayer for the Day

- P God, our Creator, as we look into the skies we celebrate the wonders of the worlds that surround us. Help us to see your presence in the evening sky, to see your spirit in the wind, and to see your mercy in the falling rain. Teach us to hear the good news from the sky celebrating the glory of God in Earth. Rejoice with us as we behold the dawn revealing the mysteries of the skies above and Earth below. In the name of Christ who unites heaven and Earth. Amen.

Offering Prayer

Accept our offerings as an expression of our deep thanks and our concern for those in need, including our fellow creatures on planet Earth.

P. With all creation, we bless our Creator.

Prayers of the People

We thank God for a wondrous creation. We celebrate with all the heavens. We pray for all those in need. We name them now. We close with the following prayer.

Creation Prayer

Jesus Christ, teach us to empathize with Earth.
Make our spirits sensitive to the cries of creation, cries for justice from the air, the clouds, and the sky.
Jesus Christ, make our faith sensitive to the groans of the Spirit in creation, groans of longing for a new creation.
Jesus Christ, make our hearts sensitive to the songs of our kin, songs of celebration from the stars, the clouds, and the light.
Christ, teach us to care. Amen

The Great Thanksgiving

L The Creator be with you and all creation.

P And also with you.

L Open your hearts.

P We open them to our Creator.

L Let us give thanks to our Creator.

P It is right to join creation in thanking God.

L It is right to give you thanks, loving Creator.
Your word is the impulse for all things to be,
for space, stars, and stardust to appear,
for Earth to emerge from the deep, for life to be born of Earth and for humans to be born of Earth and the Spirit.

You chose to be born a human being,
to become a part of Earth,

to suffer, die, and rise from death to redeem humankind, renew creation, and affirm all born of Earth and the Spirit.
Your presence is the living impulse in all things,
the Christ deep among us,
filling Earth—land, sea, and air;
filling every element and place;
filling the grain and the grape we share with you this day.

Therefore with angels and archangels, ancient voices in the forest, high voices from the sky,
deep voices from the sea and the whole company of creation, we proclaim your presence among us

P. Holy, holy, holy, God of all life, Earth and sea and sky
and all things that exist are full of your presence and glorify your name. Amen

Recession and Song

We join the children in song as they process from the church waving their prayer flags and calling out the prayers on their flags. Flags may then be strung across the entrance to the church.
