

We Come from North, South East and West

Susan Gilbert Zencka (Dakota)

Native American Melody

1. We come from north, south, east and west,
2. North gives us cour - age, and wis - dom each day,
3. And so are we, we're all gifts from God,

5
we South shar - come gives ing to us the sit strength bread as and of one youth, life.

8
We East Dif - come brings ferent we each day, are, to learn, to and share, and to serve,
to each day, but joy one in our too;
to learn, to and share, and to serve,
to each day, but joy one in our too;

12
God West And makes takes us when we're one, deep fed, we wor - ship our God.
West takes us when we're one, deep fed, we wor - ship our God.
And when we're one, deep fed, we wor - ship our God.

Car - ing need We will go for all, these, out, we they're north, south, each all find gifts from a place:
Car - ing need We will go for all, these, out, we they're north, south, each all find gifts from a place:
Car - ing need We will go for all, these, out, we they're north, south, each all find gifts from a place:

20
God's giv - lev - en - ing house is to us to our us for God's home, for God's too. life. world.
